

A mobile tractor-trailer truck that transforms into an automotive service center.

Possible Uses:

- Employer provided on-site service
- Extended reach into C&D markets
- Event marketing

Employer On-Site Billing Options:

- Employer paid benefit
- Employee paid payroll deduction
- Formal credit program either through oil change company or Mastercard/Visa

Fig 1

Interior of trailer is designed according to specifications of a stationary automotive service center to accommodate equipment, parts, oil and other supplies. Is also equipped with approved oil recovery and storage systems.

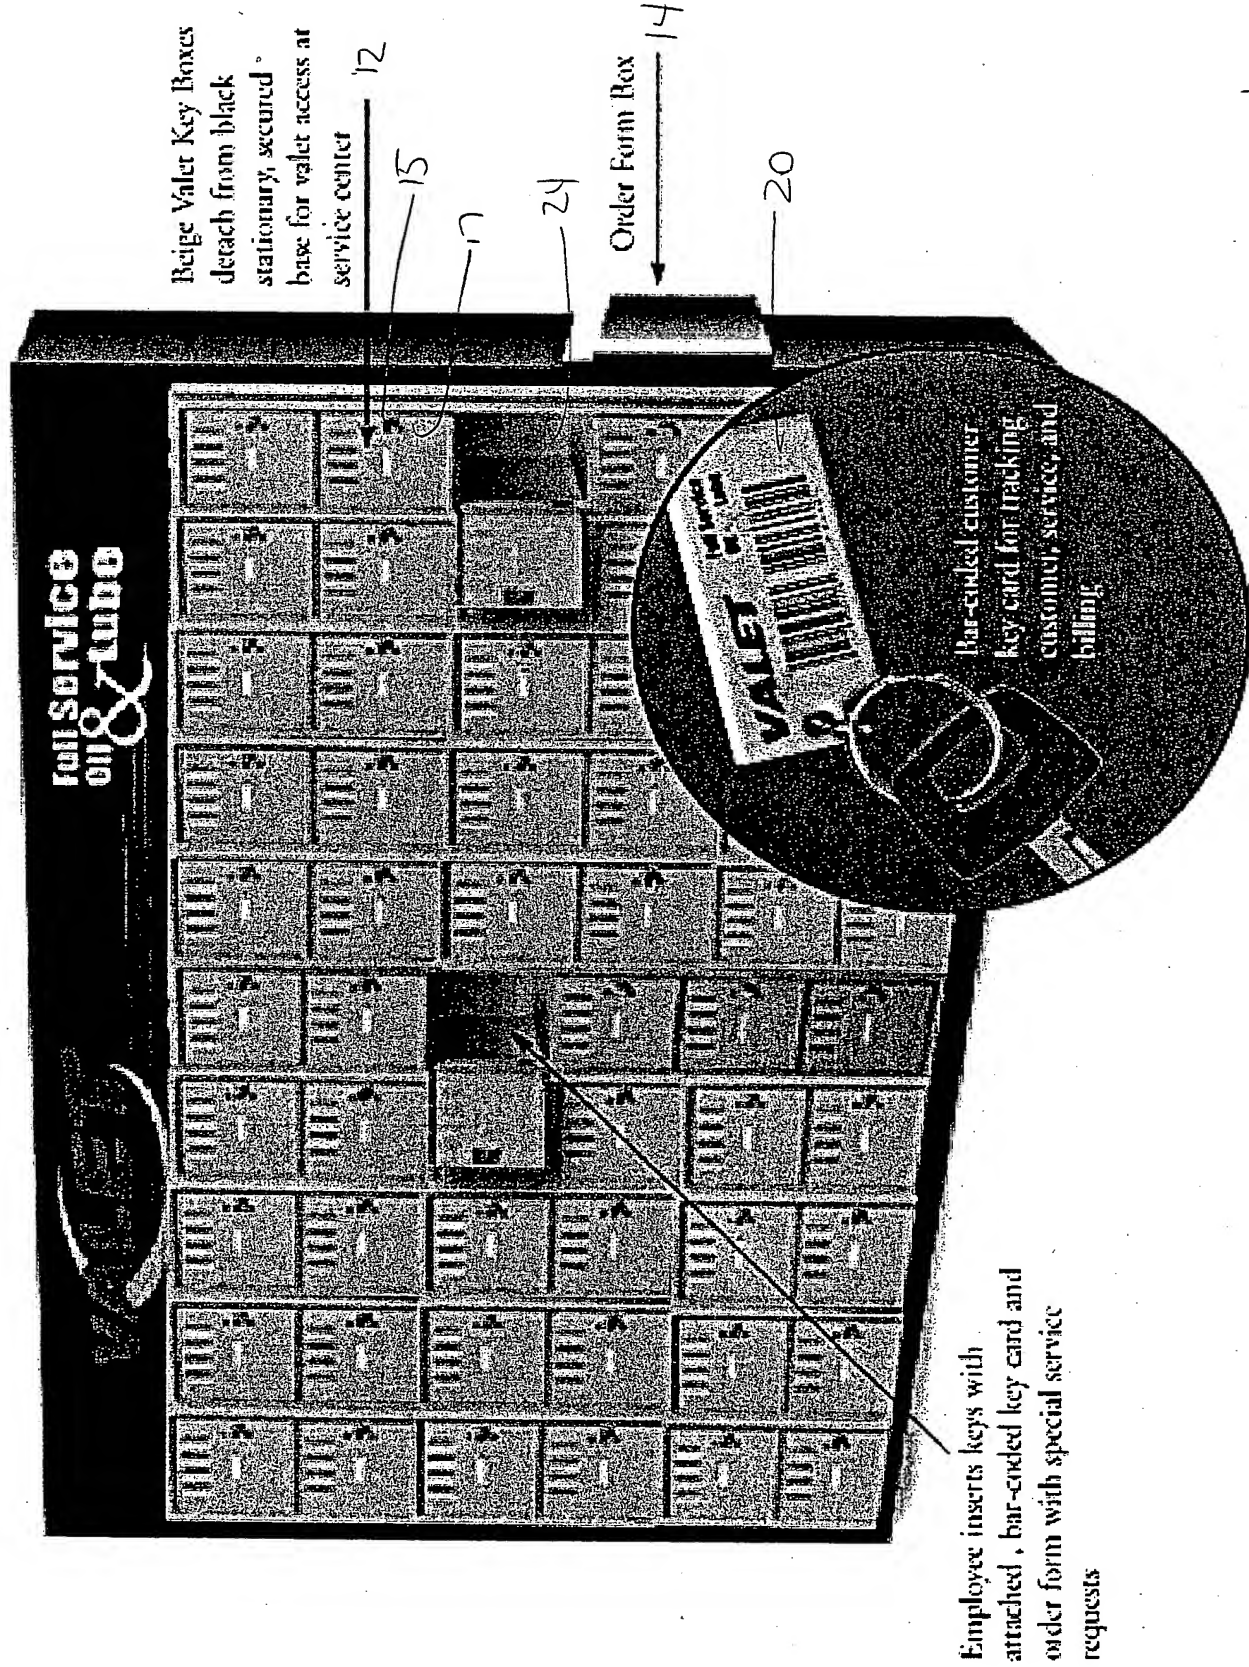

Side panel of trailer hinges open to reveal center

Attached forklift type mechanics for lifting autos for service

Color coded oil filters to verify to customers that oil change was completed

Employee Key Drop off Box/Lockers

Fig 5

Lock System

12'

16'

19

Employee Key Locker

Token Machine

Machine / Drop off Tracking System

① Employee Swipes or Scans Employee I.D. Card w/ Bar Code, Magnetic Strip, etc.

② The Token Machine will Dispense (1) one Token that can be used in the Employee Key Drop off Box/Secure Lockers.

Note: The Scanner/Scan Systems will also Be part of a tracking Device to show that the Employee actually Dropped off a set of Keys and at what time

FIG 6

Figure 1: Data Flow Diagram

Fig 7

1.0 Carlet n Employ e Service Benefit "Employee On-Site Vehicle Service" Process

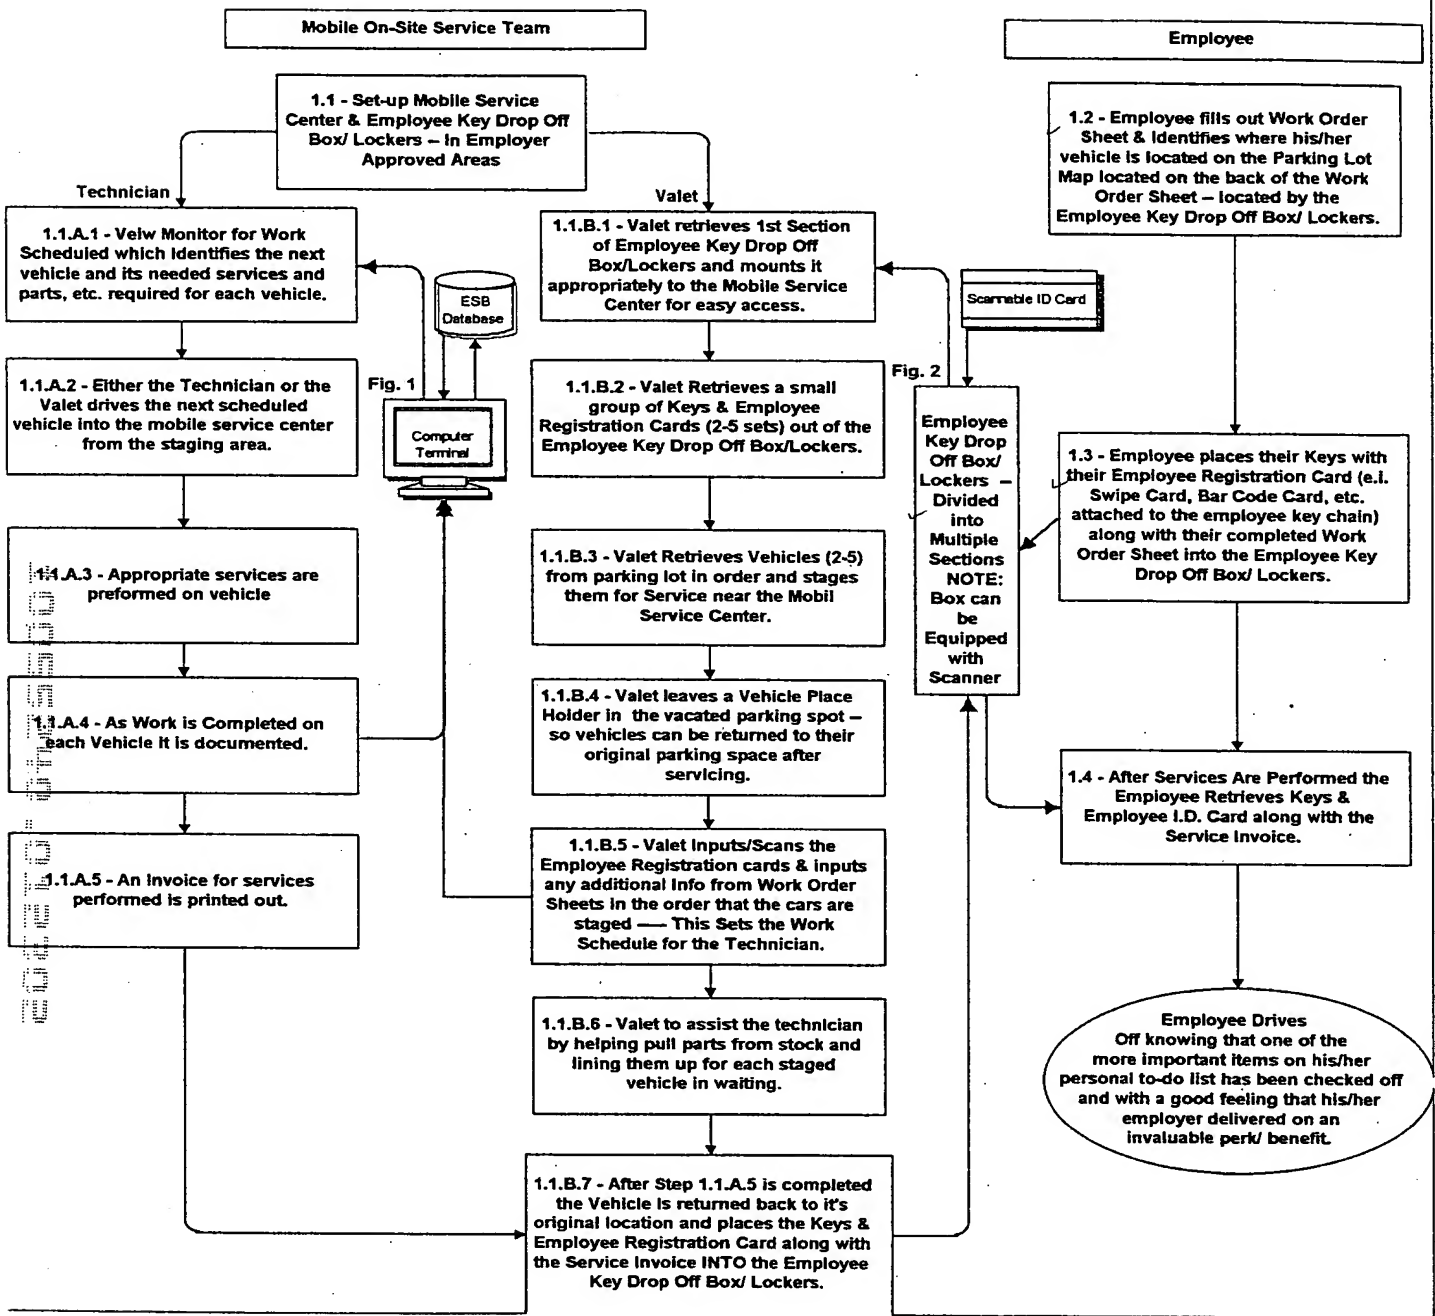

Fig 8